Easy Waltz Feel,

Fmaj7

Today is a kaliedoscope of happenings; graduation, birthdays, indulging in a sundae, washing the car, even things we take for granted like; a glass of water, a smile, a warm hello. The present is something that can never be taken away and never relived.

Things are happening all school year long, sometimes two or three major events are scheduled in the space of a single day. We look ahead to the Fall Festival or the play, and the time seems long; we are too busy with them during production, and time isn't noticed; and we think back on them at the end of the year and it seems the time flew.

HAPPENINGS

"Eh Groucho—Why a duck??"

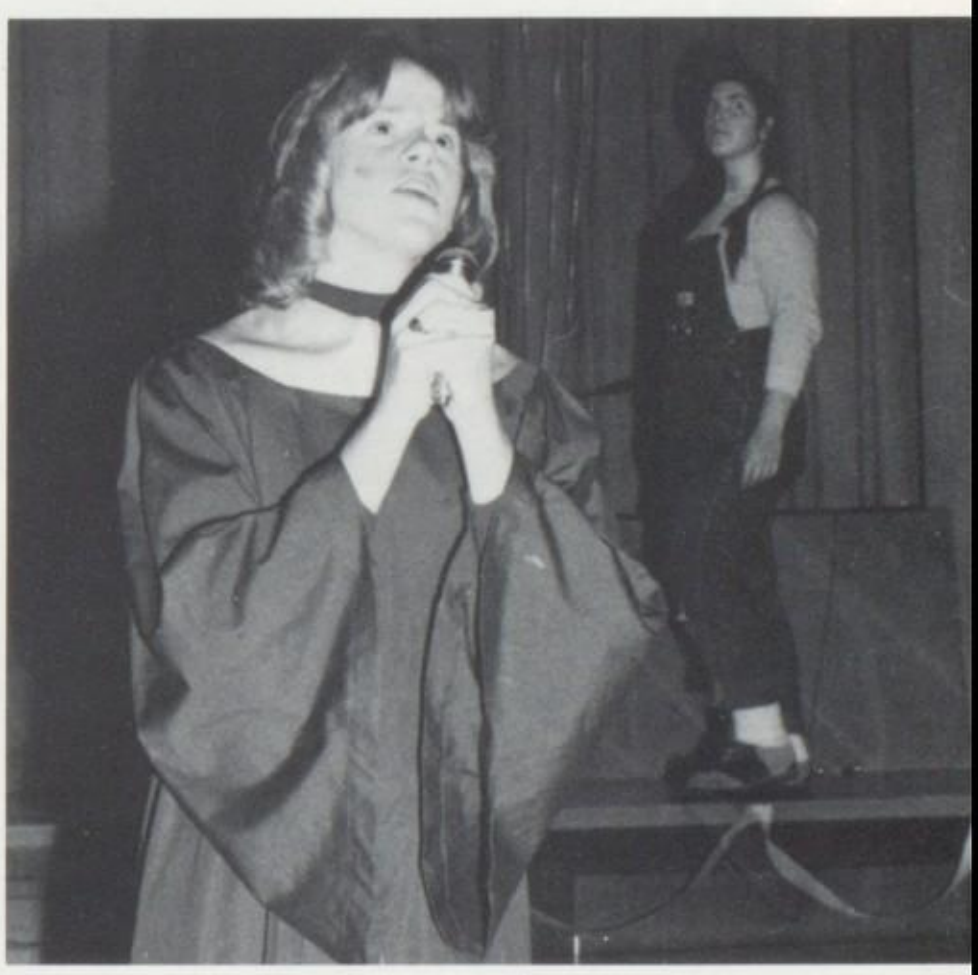
Want some laughs? Remember when Pam Yoder was running around with that creme pie trying to catch Kim Shirk? Remember when Miss Phebus caught that pie right in the "kisser"? Remember the Senior boys dressed up in diapers and drooling all over the stage? Yes-sir-ee!! It all happened at Variety '74, September 27, 1974. Those were only a few of the many talented acts that night.

After the three nights a week of practice for nearly two weeks the cast was ready to give the show. There were some dull points and a lot of kids experienced their first case of stage-fright, but the show did go on with such acts as "The Monster Mash"—a new hit group, and American Stand Band, a look at the 50's, and many more acts including Kurk Bright and Brian Yoder as Groucho and Chico Marx. Again Variety '74 gave Rossville High and the community a night of laughs and a little bit of corn.

"THEY DID THE MONSTER MASH!" Jeff Skiles, Jim Luper, and Keith Patrick give the audience the chance to see the Monster Mash done by live monsters.

MICK WHITLOCK performed many songs at Variety '74 to the enjoyment of his stage and audience listeners.

"YUUUUUK!!" Miss Phebus gets the full force of Pam Yoder's wrath in the form of a creme pie in the ol' kisser.



"EH GROUCHO—YOU-A-CRAZY!" Brian Yoder and Kurk Bright perform their Groucho and Chico Marx routine in front of a roaring audience.

"IT'S MELVIS!" Janice Mohler falls to a dead faint as the other girls grab for Melvis in the American Stand Band skit.

BRENDA RUDE decked out in a chorus robe dramatically sings "The Impossible Dream" as Julie Jackson comically mimics her every motion.

$1227–Best Record Ever!!

Did you ever feel like every single person in the world is hassling you? Ever feel like you don't have any confidence left at all? Ever feel like screaming your head off when the pressure builds and builds and BUILDS!!?

This is how nearly every Sophomore feels when his class undertakes to produce the biggest and best Fall Festival. But this year the Class of '77 was in a big dilemma. Both sponsors, Miss Phebus and Mrs. Hoff, knew nothing of sponsoring a Fall Festival. So the Sophomores and their sponsors had to start at the bottom and create a new Fall Festival.

Work began weeks ahead of the big night—October 18, 1974. The kids had to pull together and become a working unit. They had to get used to the sponsors and the sponsors had to get used to them. They had to meet deadlines for completion of booths and do scores of other unfamiliar jobs to be ready in time.

After all the work and hassles and building and preparing the Sophomores created the most successful Fall Festival in R.H.S. history! The multipurpose room was jammed with booths, and people, and was buzzing with action. Mike Fickle and Pat Bondurant became '74 Fall Festival King and Queen. The haunted house was a success as were all the other Sophomore booths.

As the Festival ended the kids were greeted with a disaster area of tape, cardboard, paper, dirt and streamers which they cleaned up patiently for there would be time to sit down, groan, and keelover at Miss Phebus' afterwards.

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT and humor pass among contestants Maureen Sharp, Rita Ward, and Patricia Bondurant, and their escorts.

RED ROSES accent Debra Gochenour and Craig Stanley's march toward the Fall Festival queen crowning ceremonies.

JUNIORS Brenda Rude and Debra Frey drool at the Senior's bake sale stand sporting cupcakes, brownies, and all kinds of goodies.

WHO COULD RESIST buying a cake at the Senior bake sale from these two festival cuties?? Jan and Janice give the cake and the photographer a big smile.

MIKE FICKLE has a look of determination on his face as he is announced Fall Festival King. Vicki Hinesley smilingly releases him to join a waiting queen.

JEFF STEVENS tries to guess Stacy Powell's weight as Brian Yoder and Lisa Powell add some fun to the situation.

CROWNER JANET WILSON, crownee Stacey Miller, Kristi Huffer, and Marla Milner all take part in the Little Miss Rainbow Contest.

HOMECOMING 1975

Anticipation, beautiful gowns, voting day, worrying, crossed fingers, the "butterflies", competition, corsages, escorts, tradition, congratulations, surprise, tears, and the whirl of excitement were all a part of Homecoming '75.

This year homecoming fell on February 8th during the Clinton Central game. Queen contestants, Melanie Crane, Janet Wilson, Colleen Brenneman, Mary Treece, and Terri Gable, and Debbie Metzger, had been picked previously by the varsity basketball players. Kings were chosen from the senior basketball boys: Brian Yoder, Bruce Calloway, Mike Tucciarelli, Bruce Beisel, Gary Kelly, Dan Phebus, and Jeff Stevens.

At the peak of Homecoming '75 excitement, Gary Kelly and Colleen Brenneman became king and queen for the season amidst the applause of the fans.

"Oh, Eddie, You're So Boss!"

"C'mon Louise, it's a breeze. Put your saddles on and we'll boogie all night!" The Sadie Hawkins dance went back to the 50's this year and Rossville got a taste of the nostalgia craze that was sweeping the nation. Eddie and Louise were there and they were all boppin' to "Rock Around the Clock" and the "Peppermint Twist" as were all the other greasers and their chicks. Ducktails, hoop skirts, saddles, midies, rolled-up jeans, and leather jackets all made the scene and as the music got soft and romantic and the lights were turned down low, Eddie and Louise realized they had it "made in the shade".

"Wow, what keen Dice! I'll be cruisin' in style." D.J. Jimmy Mack awards Mike Dilling and Lugene Gaylor dice for being the best dancers.

"Boogie down!" Gary Kelly, Colleen Brenneman, Patty Robinson, and Diedra Reed boogie down to all that good 'ol rock and roll.

Steve Melton and his class jacket and Kim Shirk in her patch work midi try their luck at learning how to jitterbug.

Gary Kelly and Brenda Rude dance cheek to cheek to Connie Francis' "Where The Boys Are" as Tina Kelly snickers at her brother.

With Midies swaying and bodies swinging, Kim Shirk and Ava groove to the sounds of the "Peppermint Twist."

Drama '75 Creates Mime

This year Drama '75, comprised of the Dramatics students, decided to try a mime production of James Thurber's "The Last Flower." A mime production had never been performed at R.H.S. and it went over well. Drama students put two short weeks of hard, rushed, work and produced four exceptionally good cuttings for the school's English classes to enjoy.

Julie Jackson and Steve Miller splendidly portrayed two young lovers in a concentration camp in, "I Never Saw Another Butterfly."

"Where's Felix?" questions Oscar while the gang predicts Felix's fate in "The Odd Couple."

"The Last Flower," choreographed by Dave Tislow, screams out the horror of war to a disbelieving world.

Grace snears at senile ol' Herbert as he once again forgets Grace's name in "I'm Herbert" from "You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running."

The Drama Department performed Jay Christopher's, "The Nut Factory" to the delight of a receptive audience. "Nut Factory" was the story of the madcap McNutt Halfway House run by three teen-age sisters. Baggy old Mrs. Cromwell and her snobby daughter, Olivia, plot to remove the sisters as operators of the house. Chris, one of the sisters, asks Barry, her football crazy boyfriend, to disguise himself as Dr. Fruedler—the missing psychiatrist. Everything falls apart in a roar of laughter as Claude—the lawyer, Herbie, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, and the rest of the cast join in the excitement.

Chistopher's "Nut Factory" A Scream!!

"Yeow!" yells Doug Brovont as crabby 'ol Mrs. Johnson serves him his fish sandwich and questions the use of his disguise.

Scott Peterson, student director, and Lisa Powell, props chairman, arrange a potted plant on the set before dress rehearsal.

Members of the very essential make-up and costume crews take a "chatter" break before the rehearsal and Mr. Eiler's pep talk.

"Look into my crystal ball, Barry. I will show you many mysterious things." Janice, Lisa, and Karen plot to take Barry's pants.

"Ah, you broke Herbie's pies!!" Julie and Marlys receive a well deserved pie in the face from bumbling Craig.

Make-up crew member Gwen Everett carefully smooths the creamy, dark "pancake" make-up all over Twyla Voss' face.

Barry's beautiful heart studded boxers are a comical surprise to ecstatic Chris and Cheryl as their plot to take Barry's pants is successful.

Pool Party For Post Prom

Misunderstood arrangements, disorganization, and incorrect decorations . . . the 1975 Junior-Senior Prom at Holiday Inn West. But we did it! We gave the Seniors a dance and supper to be proud of. This year we centered attention on the location, meal, favors, and band, making it a World of Fantasy. The after-prom party of swimming and the annual trip to Turkey Run on Sunday, April 27, brought the affair to a crescendo.

Prom band "Sundown" plays "Behind Closed Doors" as the dance floor is flooded with people.

Contestants from the Class of 1975 pose for a snapshot before the crowning ceremony.

In the eyes of Denise Turpin and Bruce Miller the 1975 Junior-Senior Prom does turn into a World of Fantasy.

Seniors Gary Kelly and Susie Starnes reign as prom king and queen to the delight of all R.H.S. prom goers.

Mass Cooperation That's Festival '75

Mass cooperation!! That's what's needed to make the Clinton County Music Festival work. Pulling the Rossville, Clinton Prairie, and Clinton Central bands and choruses together is no easy task. Mrs. Caddell and Mr. Albro began early in the year working with choral and band members with music, some of which didn't arrive until a week before showtime. The problems of working with 200 band members and nearly 100 chorus members is staggering but Mr. Rex Magner and Mr. James Church, who was doing his last festival performance, turned the chaos into a good solid sound which was enjoyed by the crowd that evening.

PETRA adjusts her fingers and crinkles her face as she tries a "toot" on Gary Gangwer's coronet before showtime at the festival.

Science Fair Revitalized

Because of lack of interest last year the science fair hadn't achieved the quality it had in former years. This year members of the senior physics and math classes were asked to do a project for the fair. Entries increased and new life was pumped into the event.

BRIAN YODER and Curt Perry tried building a holigram and producing pictures by laser. They were successful and walked away with Grand Champion.

May 11, 1975—Beginning of Graduation for some Seniors meant freedom and a wild scream of joy in the multipurpose room. For some it meant butterflies that turned into water buffalos as the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" echoed through the crowded gym. For others it meant hugging and tears and goodbye to old friends. But for everyone, graduation meant a scary, new, uncertain future. High school was behind. No more screaming in pep block. No more of the everyday fun, smiles, and laughter with people we've known and loved for twelve years. We'll never go back to R.H.S. in the fall. But now that graduation is over and we're finished with high school, would we go back if we were given the chance? Would we want to?

We are now a part of a totally new experience—an experience that our friends left behind in school can't fully comprehend until it is their time to turn the tassle and begin again as we have.

May 11, 1975. Just another day for the rest of the world—but not for the Class of 1975.

C.C. Finishes Fourth in Conference

Jerry Gaylor, Matt Tucciarelli, Steve Mulligan, and Steve McCarty exert themselves on the final lap of the cross country course.

Start out, jump the ditch, circle the track once, cross the entrance drive, turn left, run to the corner of the second house, circle the vacant lot next to it, run to the outfield light post, run to the scoreboard, take off to the outside of the old track, dog it up the hill, sprint past the starting line (and coach), and then one more time and practice is over.

And so it went for the cross country team as they sweatily followed the erratic cross-country course day after day. The practice turned into competition, as the harriers had a 5-3 season, finished fourth in the conference, sixth in the Carroll Invitational and ninth in the Delphi Sectional.

The team was paced by Kris Jones, who received 2 firsts, and Bruce Calloway, who received one first. The Team members received their letters at the Fall Sports Convo, and Kris Jones received the Most Valuable Runner Award.

Girls Finish Third Year

The girls' volleyball team suffered many defeats this year, as they faced many schools in which female sports had been ingrained for more than a decade. With Miss Carter in her second year of coaching, the girls trained and practiced as determinedly as the boy athletes. Never losing their spirit, they fought hard in every game, never giving up until the game was over.

They played 14 other schools, finishing with a 1-13 record, and with most of the girls gaining valuable experience for next year's season.

JUNIOR, Lisa Unger, directs the ball over the net as Coach Joy Carter and Manager Joni Caster anticipate a Hornet point.

DEBBY MILLER, Most Valuable Player, puts her talent to use in the struggle to top the Delphi Oracles during a home game.

Crackers, St. A's Busters, Wizards Compete

It was another good intramural season this year, with the play-offs producing the usual upsets. With a majority of seniors this year, there were four teams, each with co-captains. Although each team picked seven players, injuries and ineligibilities dropped the number of players to six, five, and four. Substitutes had to be recruited.

The season started with the Pinball Wizards leading, followed by the Knuckle Busters, St. Alfonzo's, and the Spinal Crackers. At the end of the season, the Wizards and the Busters switched standings as did the Crackers and St. Alfonzo's. Then came the climax in the annual tourney with the St. A's getting their game together and rolling past all opposition to capture first place. The Busters finished second, followed by the Crackers and then the Wizards.

B-Team Has Building Year

The B-team was inexperienced this year, with only one junior, eight sophomores, and three frosh on the squad; and three players played some varsity. Everyone saw plenty of action as they alternated in and out of the game.

The team started the season with five players less than they ended up with, gaining three freshmen, Matt Tucciarelli, and Mike Fickle. Practicing with the varsity, they scrimmaged and ran drills day in and day out under the watchful eye of Coach Mike Reynolds. After 18 games, they finished 7-11. Players and Coach will be looking forward to an experienced year in '75-76.

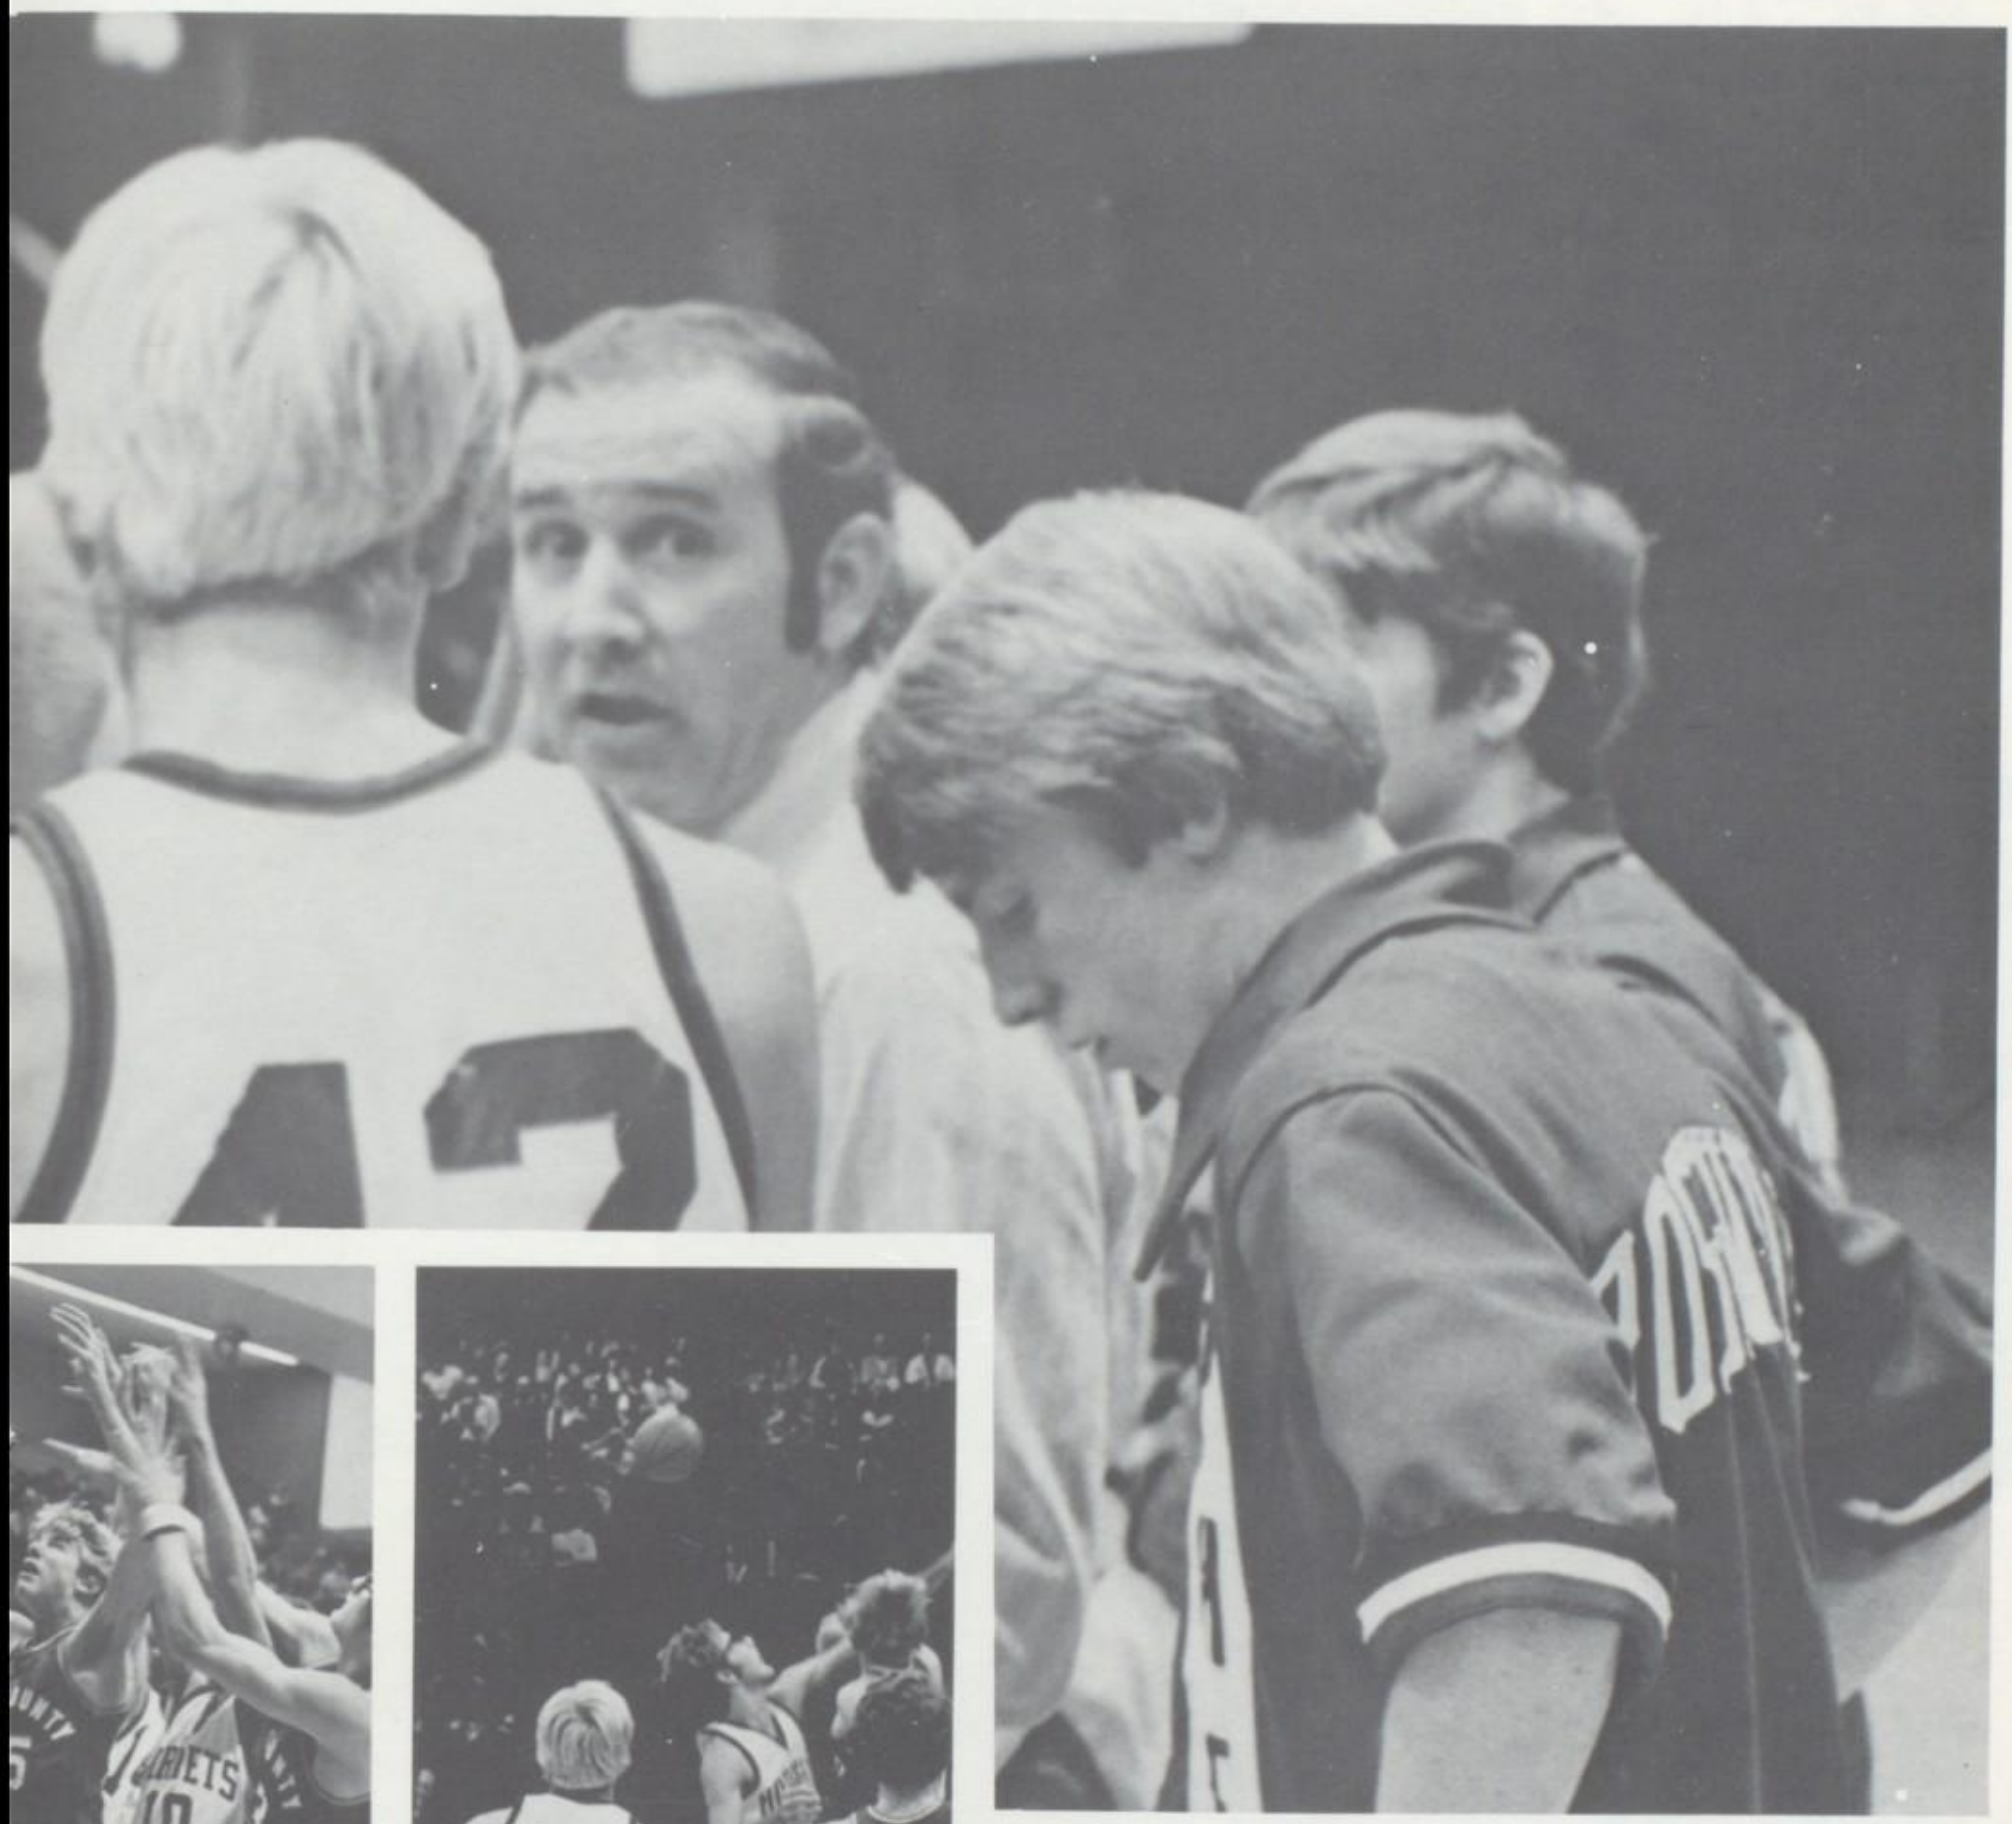
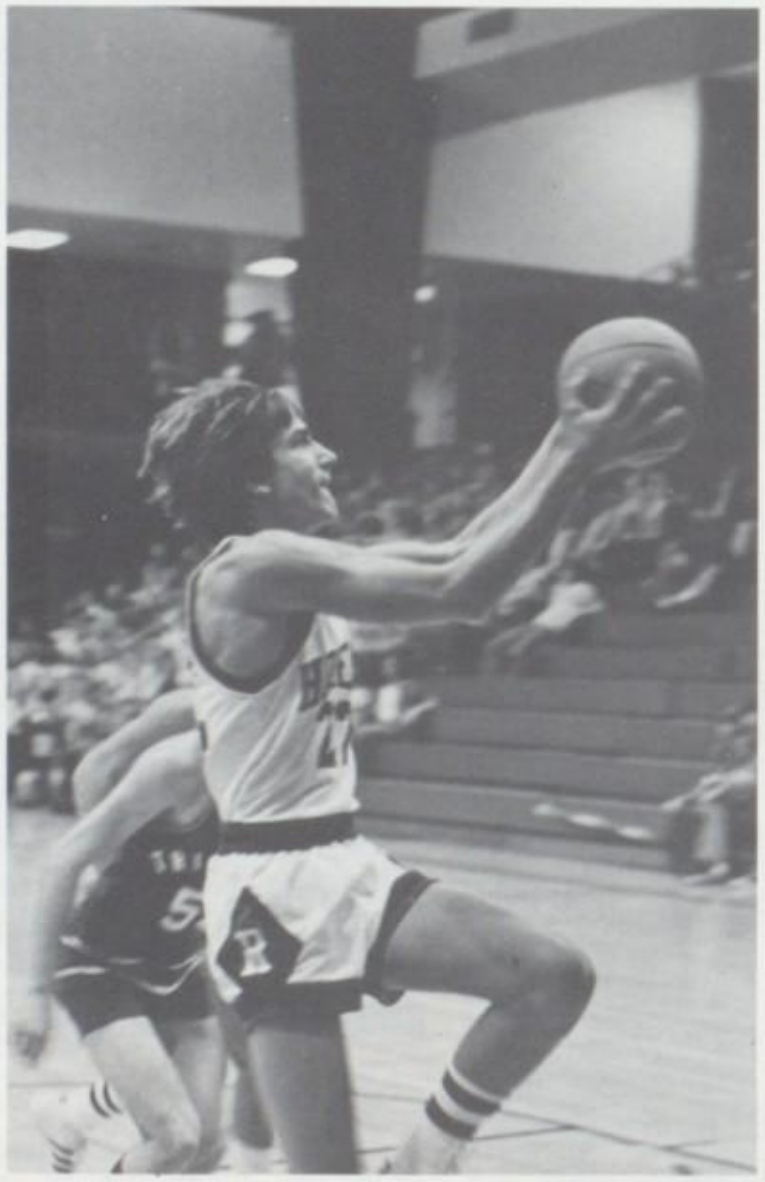
Hornet Varsity Has

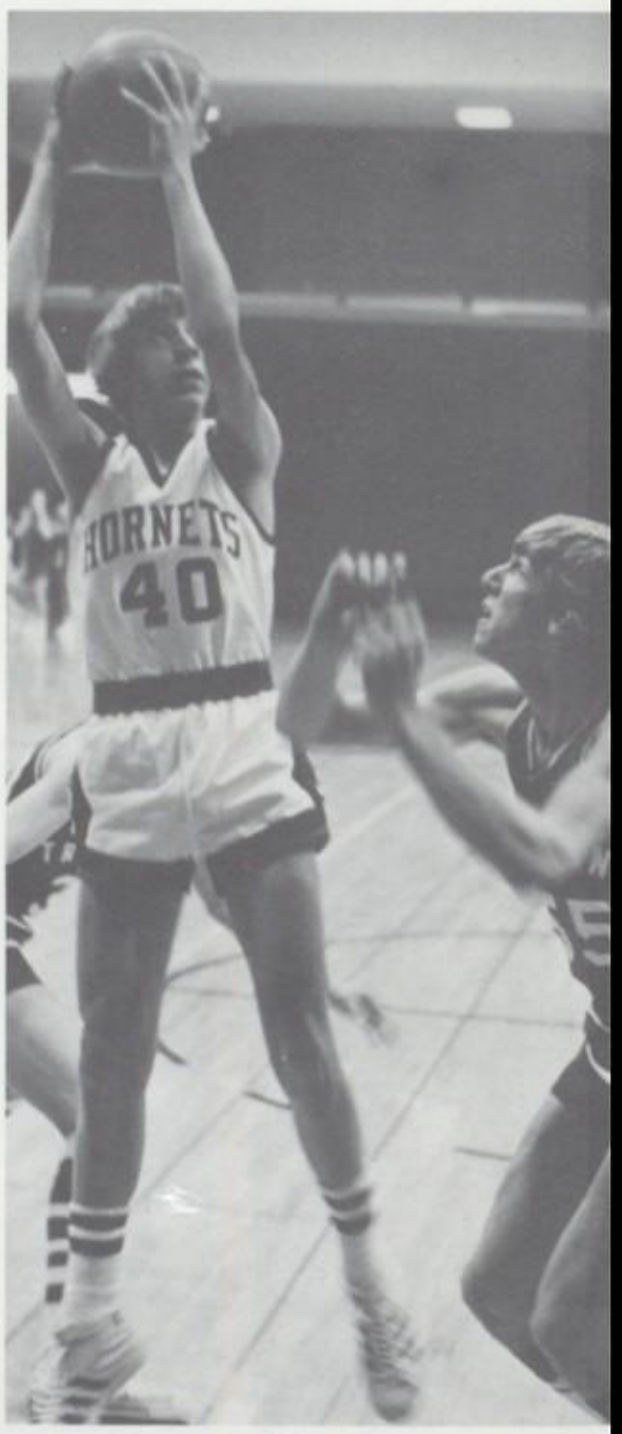
With its most frequent players: Beisel, Mulligan, Calloway, Kelly, Phebus, Jones, and Hufford, the RHS Varsity 74-75 stopped with a 22-1 record. It was indeed a great year.

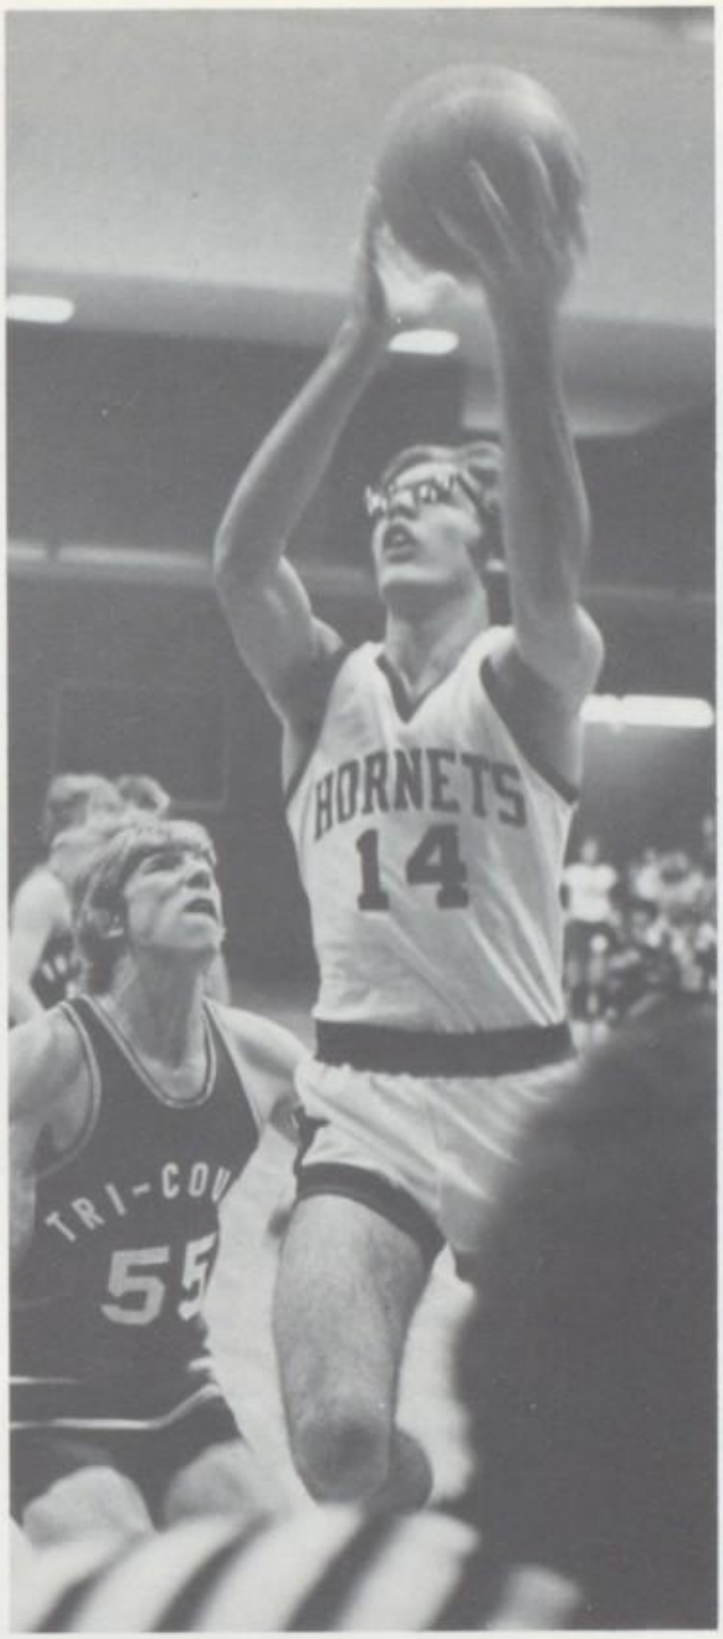
W-i-n-n-i-n-g Season!!

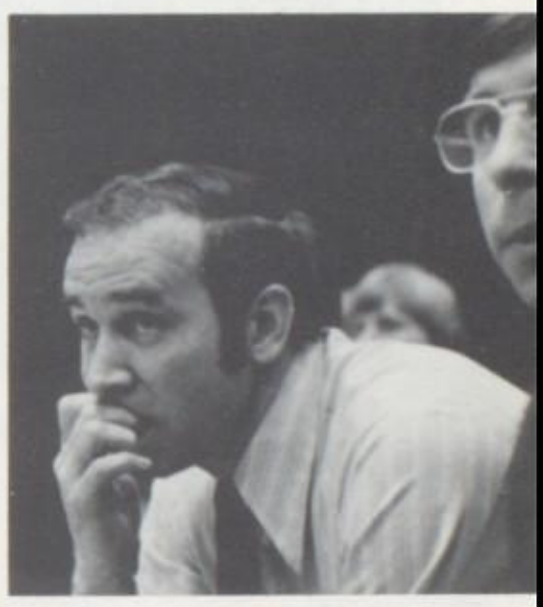


The season-end tallies show that Rossville averaged above opponent averages in the total points, average game points, rebounding, assisting, and free throw statistics.









It was a good year . . . . . .

A very good year . . . .

Girls Learn From Two Coaches

The girls' basketball team faced a losing season this year as they met many setbacks. Plagued by illness, they barely had the whole team together for even one game. Coach Joy Carter, too, was subject to bad health, as Coach Jones had to take her place for one week.

The inexperienced squad, in only Rosville's second year of female basketball, faced a tough schedule, playing the number one and number two ranked teams in the state. After watching some of their players, Coach Jones remarked that he "wouldn't mind having some of them on the boy's varsity."

Despite the rigorous practices and both coaches instructions, the varsity finished 0-10, and the B-team finished 1-9.

Crumpacker, Beisel Garner Top Awards

On March 26, Rossville held its annual Basketball Banquet, honoring all junior and senior high school teams, male and female.

Bruce Beisel received the majority of awards, as Coach Jones presented him with the Most Valuable Player award, Rebound award, and the Tom Knapp Memorial award. Gary Kelly was awarded both the 'Mental Attitude and the Free Throw award, and Bruce Calloway won the Assist award, just started this year.

For the girls, Rosie Crumpacker received the Most Valuable Player award, and shared the Mental Attitude award with Donna Tharp.

SENIOR Bruce Calloway receives the Assist award from Mr. Jones with a broken nose to show for his efforts!

3—AWARD WINNER Bruce Beisel is deservingly congratulated by Coach Mike Jones.

COACH JONES amusedly opens his gift of a dual-purpose coach-referee shirt at the BB banquet.

Organizations . . . remember the fun we had at last year's Spanish Club parties? And what about that 1963 SSS picture—they were having a blast! It sure seems like I'm busy in clubs now. Wish I had more free time but I don't want to drop any. Next year though, I do want to be a class officer, and the yearbook staff sounds fun too . . .

ORGANIZATIONS

The Annual Sophomore Fall Festival—a chance for clubs to make money—the major yearly event where school organizations compete for customers. It's rather a "reunion" of clubs. There was a new addition to the "family" this year, French Club, which sponsored a Casino.

Point System Sparks Sunshiners; Coat Check Keeps FHA Hopping.

SSS PRESIDENT and Treasurer stack up the money collected from their two week candy campaign.

The Sunshine Society decided to add a little competition to their activities this year. Each member recieved a certain number of points for each activity she attended and each committee she served on. At the end of every thirty days, the Sunshine "Girl of the Month" was announced. She won the right to wear the Sunshine ring until the next meeting.

SSS's usual candy sales went well this year, with $150 collected for the Riley Hospital Fund. The girls also added several new activities, including Daddy Date Night and Senior Breakfast to their agenda. All together, the Sunshiners spent a busy year serving their motto, "Others."

FHA's big project this year—running the coat check at basketball games—succeeded in spite of missing coats, smashed hats, and flying hangers. FHAers also tackled a march of dimes, bake sale, sweetheart dance, and letters of cheer to Thad Hackerd. The club assisted SSS with needy baskets, Granny Nite, and Daddy Date Nite.

FFA Busy Under Greives

New sponsor Leon Grieves' pocket calendar was loaded with FFA projects and programs. The national convention in Kansas City; officer elections in January; Louisville tractor pull, February 13; district convention at Clinton Prarie, March 15; various livestock and dairy contests in April; parent-member banquet; and the state convention in June were all jammed onto that little calendar, and into FFA's 74-75 schedule.

A September 30th weiner roast and swimming party started the year out right for the High School Choruses. Their singing was spread through the Christmas concert, winter concert, spring concert, spring festival, and graduation. Moneymakers were calendars and candy.

Pep Clubs Unite Their Efforts Under One Sponsor

Under another new sponsor, Miss Linda Phebus, girls and boys pep club combined their efforts in yelling as well as in decorating for eight home games and the Sectional. The girls were newly outfitted in red vests and dark skirts or pants. The boys also wore new uniforms of red and white shirts. Between the two were 150 members backing their team, attending the 19 games.

Disney's Entertainers Perform in 1975

Rossville may not have as many members as the Philharmonic Orchestra, but they can sure drum up a tune. Director Jerry Disney led his small but mighty bands through the Christmas program, calendar sales, winter concert, spring concert, Graduation, and the Spring Festival here hosting Clinton Central and Clinton Prairie.

Our high-stepping majorettes held practice every Wednesday night. Participating in half-time entertainment, at home ballgames was the corp's biggest project. Money makers were candles, patches, and posters.

Francais Comes to Rossville

Our new club this year, French Club, sponsored a Casino at the Sophomore Fall Festival October 18. Willing members sang "Silent Night" in French in the Christmas convocation December 20. The Club held the last after-game dance of the season on February 15, starring Mike O'Reilly.

Eiler's Orators Have Good Year

Eiler's 21 orators who compose the Speech Team had an exceptionally outstanding year in 1975. The team competed in 9 meets. It seems rather grueling to get up before the sun is up, but it's all worth it after receiving a ribbon. The Rossville meet was held December 7th with Rossville walking off with first! The Sectional, Regional, and State competitions were held in March.

BOB WELLER takes bids at the Speech Team booth October 18. The organization sponsored a popular number challenge.

SPEECH TEAM members, Janice Mohler, Julie Jackson, and Lori Sharp await their part in the speech-sponsored Christmas convocation. Guest speaker was Reverend Johnson.

Changes In Procedure

Traditionally the National Honor Society every year inducts new members on the basis of grade average, leadership, and citizenship qualities. The ceremony, in the past, has been held as a school convocation. This year the N.H.S. decided to hold an evening ceremony on March 5, 1975. The public was invited and all N.H.S. parents and interested school chums were able to attend.

SENIOR HONOR MEMBERS, Janice Mohler, Sandy Stewart, and Craig Stanley, discuss the program while enjoying the refreshments at induction ceremonies.

Student Council Hosts 3 Convos.

The Student Council of 1975 carries through with the tradition of providing entertainment, supporting student gripes, projecting new ideas, and making money for school activities. Money earned from the ever popular coke machine helped fund three convocations and one of those after-game danced.

THESE PERFORMERS, in Student Council's first convocation of the year, informed us about history's "Thieves and Traitors".

STUDENT COUNCIL'S second convocation starred an agile couple who performed various gymnastic routines.

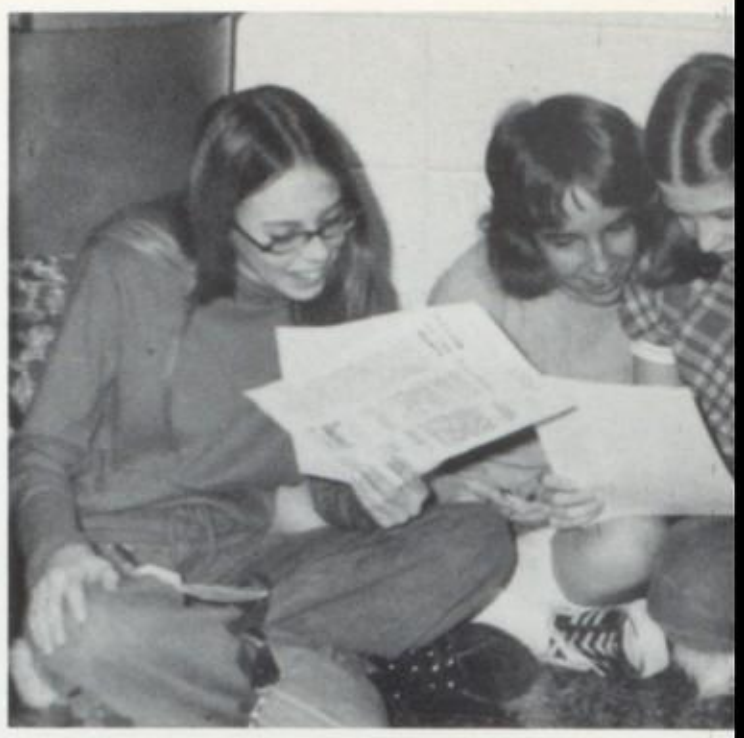
High Spot Operates Under Editor Ward

The newspaper staff sponsored a bottle toss at the Fall Festival. During the year they manufactured regular issues as well as the Senior edition at the end of the season.



JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS Jane Frey, Gwynne Brovont Cindy Crow, Delisa Stevens, and Donetta Stanley check over the new January edition of High Spot.

JENNY ROCKWOOD, Gwen Everett, and Tom Marshall laugh over recent edition of High Spot while eating their dinner.

STAFF WORKERS Rochelle Dutter and Denise Beals check over submitted copy to be published in the next issue.

CAROL KNAPP, Mike Walker, and Donna Smith pose in their duties as High Spot staff members. Through the year they are called upon for various tasks.

A RING questionably whirls toward a waiting pop bottle at the High Spot Fall Festival booth.

Yearbook Gets New Sponsor

Your 1975 yearbook was the result of many hard working staffers and editors. The five editor system was carried through again this year with the addition of a new sponsor, Mrs. Kathy Huddleston. The Fall Festival booth only bringing in $20 this year, the staff had to work harder on ad sales and subscriptions. Between these three sources, the staff made up the $4200 to pay for the book. Now today is gone and they must look toward another year and another book.

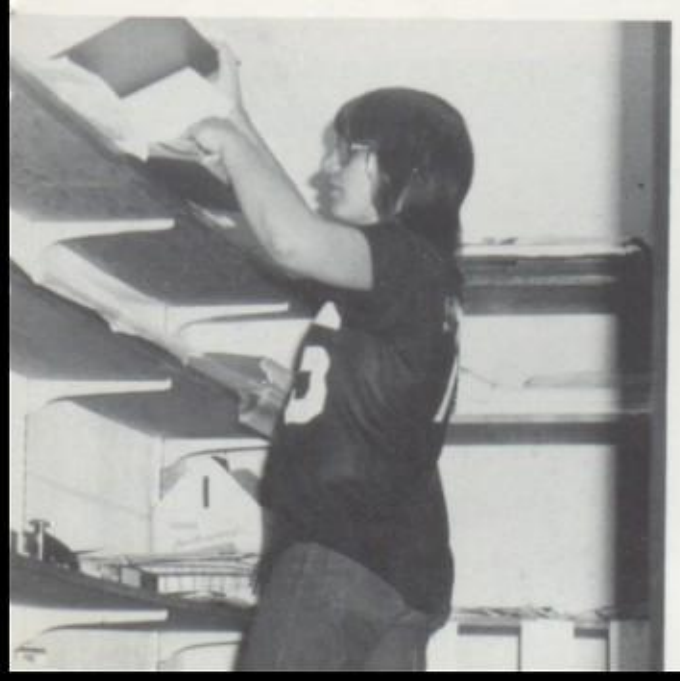
EDITOR Dave Tislow bargains with Lars customers while pulling in more funds for the yearbook by selling old photos at the Fall Festival.

VELMA WAGONER and Dave Tislow discuss advertisement plans after attempting a sale at the Frankfort Burger Chef.



CURT PERRY checks back in the old layout book to make certain he has the correct procedure.

KURT FILBRUN looks on as Dave Tislow writes up his subscription for a 1975 Lars in the tiny yearbook room.

Thanks for friends! Where would this school be if we students couldn't horse around with our classmates or confide in our favorite teacher? It would surely be a sad state of affairs without smiles or handclasps or compliments or encouragement. Appreciate your friends for soon it will be tomorrow and they will only be a yesterday.

1975 Freshman Style

When you're a freshman the whole world seems to open up. There are parties, dating, involvement, and fun as the experiences of high school begin to take on greater meaning. But along with all the fun comes the growing pains and the uncertainty. Graduation day seems so far away. There are so many new experiences along with challenging decisions. Classes become more difficult and people expect more of you.

New ideas, involvement, realization, and experience was all a part of 1975 for freshman.

Sophomores Gain Awareness

What did 1975 have in store for the sophomores? It had a 55 mile per hour speed limit, responsibility with the car, stacks of homework, a heavier school schedule, winning the spirit award, and a lot of class pride. Being a sophomore brought on more awareness of the outside world. The recession took on greater meaning when there wasn't enough money to buy the 52c a gallon gas or trying to get a job when unemployment was so high. Sophomores became aware of not only the good times but also the problems of America in 1975.

Juniors Discover Understanding

Nineteen seventy-five was a year for learning and understanding for the juniors—understanding history and why we dropped the atomic bomb, the depression, the "Cold War," the peace movement, democracy, and even themselves.

There was more growing up to do and more involvement with the prom, magazine sales, and other school activities.

Friends began to go their own ways and pursue different goals and as senior graduation drew nearer, it became easier for the juniors to realize what was in store for them and that 1976 wasn't really so far away.

R.H.S. Welcomes German Exchange Student

This year at Rossville you may have heard a German accent while walking down the hall. It was that of Petra Borowka, our German exchange student. Petra has joined us from Frieburg, Germany, and is living with Gene Mellinger and his family in Rossville.

Petra has had many new experiences and customs to become used to. Among these is switching from the youngest in the family to the oldest. She feels that our Christmas is much more commercialized than in Germany because they still burn real candles on their Christmas trees. She has also noted that Germans are more politically minded while Americans take religion more seriously.

One of the biggest changes for Petra is the difference between school systems. In Germany, those wishing to attend college must complete 13 years of school while others only go for 10 years. The school week is comprised of half days six days a week. Petra also has found we have more extra-curricular activities and German schools emphasize individual work.

Petra feels that during her stay she has learned a lot of self discipline along with gaining many new friends.

Thank You For Coming

She walked our halls in many teachers' shoes, but she remained her own person—warm, friendly, and kind. About her there was a quiet dignity that earned respect not only from the migrant child but also from the boys in ag. Until she was assigned as an aide to supervise study hall for the current school year, she had an uncertain schedule, but she was always ready. And when the final call came in January of 1975, she was ready as was her custom. Mrs. Davis, thank you for coming.

Varied Experiences For Seniors

1975—A Turning Point For Seniors

1975—The energy crisis, war in the Mid-East, draft cards, Viet Nam, apathy, un-employment, recession, poverty, busing, terrorists, hijacking, and the conflict in Northern Ireland, not to mention "seniority," paper drives, parties, the class trip, graduation, and togetherness. 1975 was a turning point for seniors. A year when decisions had to be made and preparations undertaken to survive in the outside world. It was a year of maturing with so many factors contributing to that maturing.

Growing up with political assasinations, Watergate, resignation of the president, the race riots, and the turbulance of the '60's, all tended to harden a person. But experiences like warm summer nights, smiles, helping out when someone needed it, even sitting on the picnic table at the Sundae Corner seemed to soften the harsh realities of growing up.

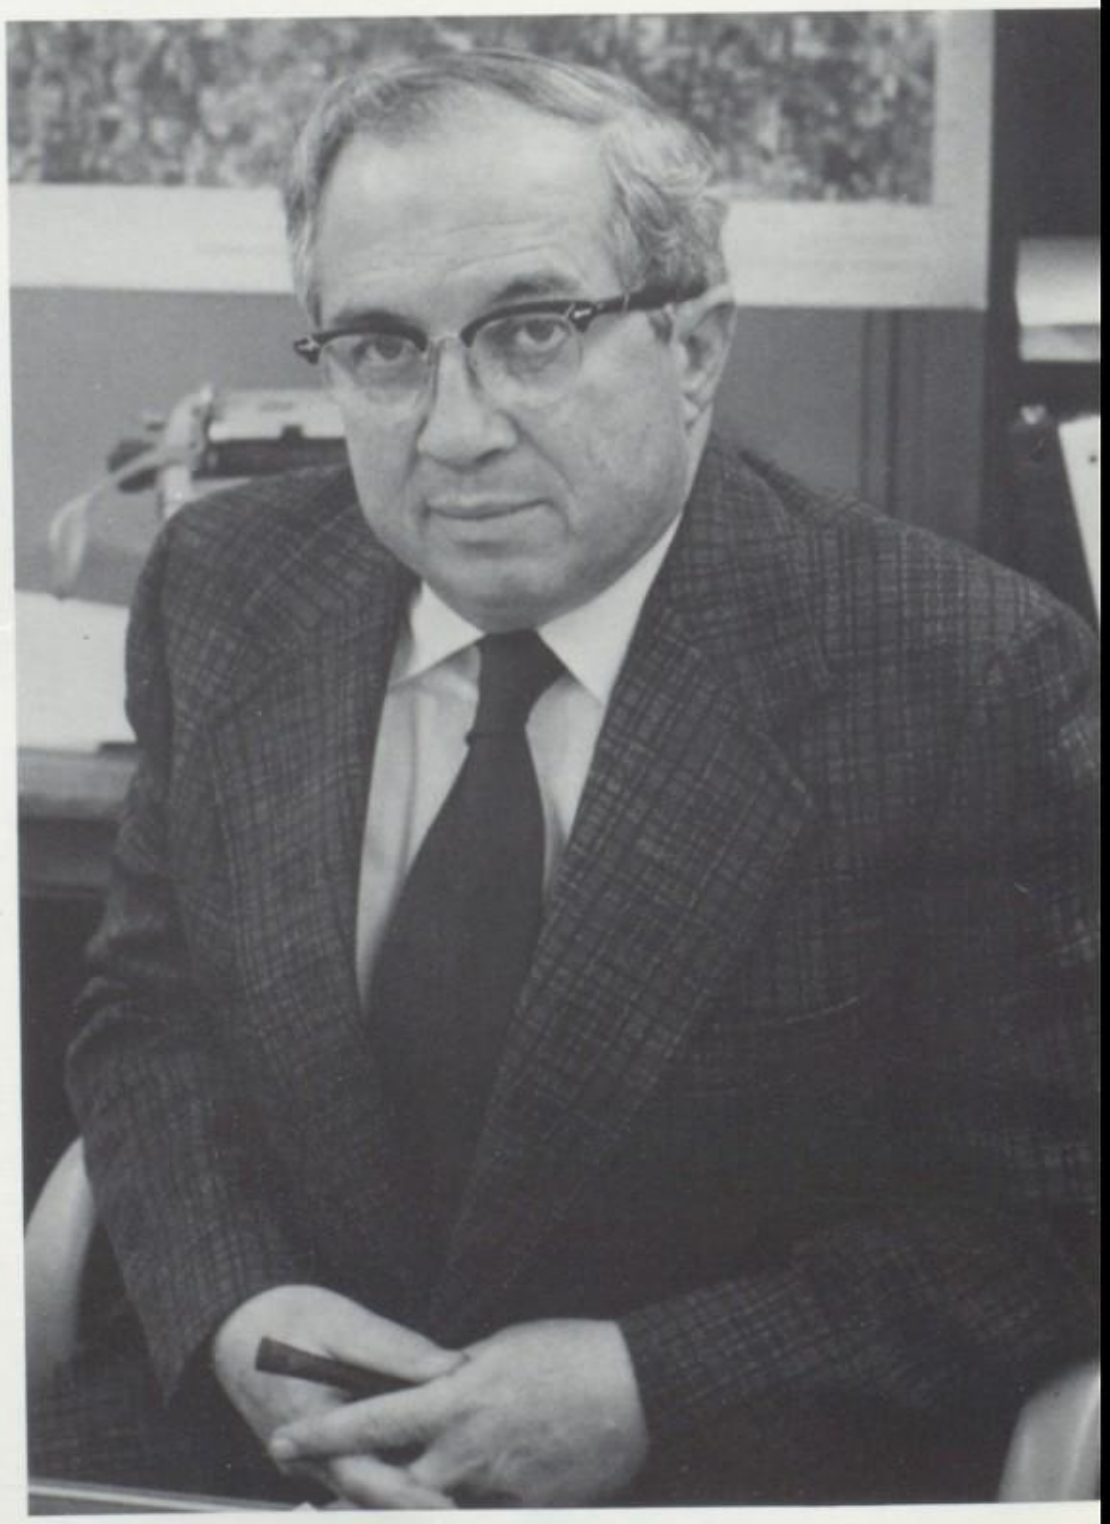
SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS Ross Milner, Bill Yoder, and Kenneth Frey represent the public's voice in making vital school decisions.

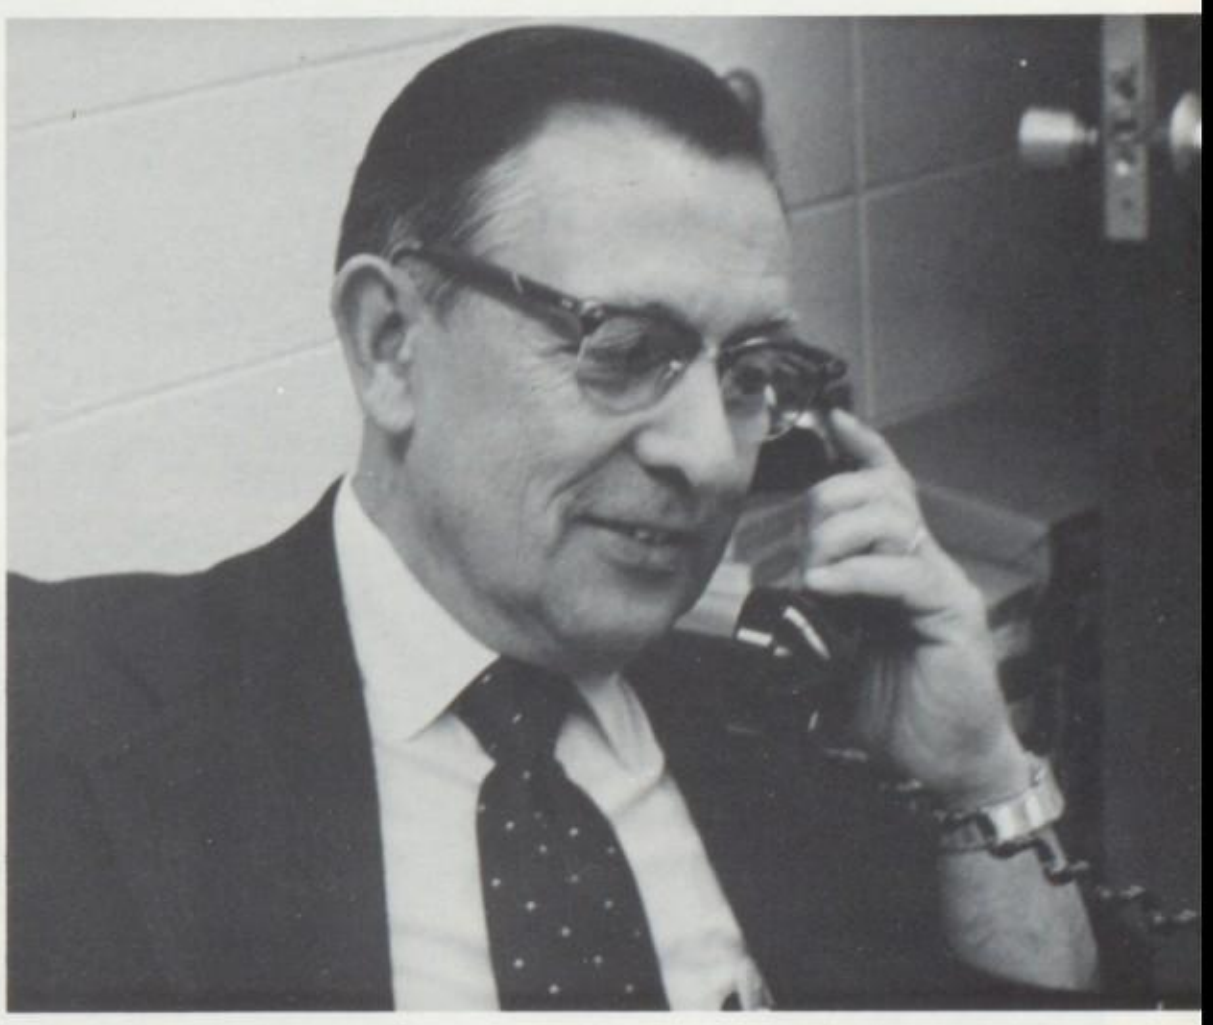
MRS. HELEN MONTGOMERY, secretary to the superintendent, handles the job of keeping balances, budgets, and expenses of the corporation.

SUPERINTENDENT ROBERT EGLY carries the responsibility of handling problems and questions of the entire school corporation.



The Power Behind the Scenes

From coping with the problem of an inflated economy to earth-shaking questions such as "Is that kid lying or does he really need a pass?" The administration of Rossville High School and Elementary dispenses fan bus tickets and absent slips, late passes and information. They buy school supplies, type up announcements, and send out grade transcripts for seniors, and somehow through it all, manage to know the name of every student from kindergarten up. They are in short the power behind the scenes.



MRS. MARY LOU CRANE, high school secretary, puts in a day packed with work from balancing organization budgets to selling lunch tickets.

PRINCIPAL BILL TISLOW, has the responsibility of being supervisor of the junior and senior high school activities.

PRINCIPAL JAMES MONTGOMERY is in charge of keeping the elementary portion of the corporation in top running order.

Front Row: Kathy Bledsoe, Kristi Huffer, Rosie Crumpacker, Jenny Rockwood, Sandy Coghill. Back Row: Brian Beals, Melodie Leming, Sandy Starnes, Rose Bowen, Twyla Voss, Sheryl Hufford.

R.H.S. Proud of Well Stocked Libraries

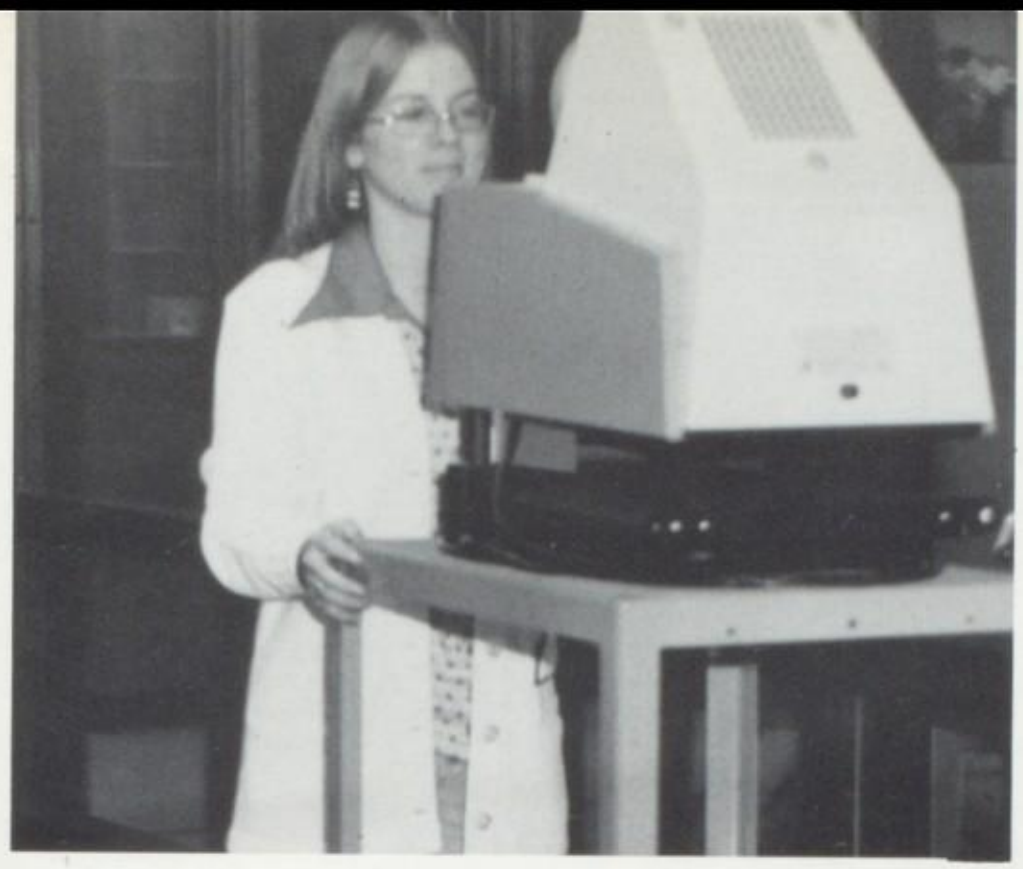
Writing a term paper? Defining a word? Catching up on the latest issue of Hot Rod or Seventeen? Reading a novel? Checking an atlas? Studying for a test? Stop by one of the Rossville libraries and check out the wide selection of fiction and reference material offered.

The Rossville libraries are very well stocked for the school's size. What they may lack in the way of fiction is more than made up for by the amount and quality of reference material and a great magazine collection complete with back issues up to the early '60's. The students and faculty of R.H.S. have much to be proud of in the high school and elementary libraries.

MARK, SHELF, ALPHABETIZE, REPAIR—Brad Golden, Randy Goris, Melodie Leming, and Kathy Van Scyoc take charge of his tedious job.

MRS. WANITA ENOCH handles the problems of the elementary library along with her duties as an elementary teacher's aid.

LARRY RODKEY, fourth grader, gazes at one of the many fiction books offered by the grade school library.



MARY TREECE, library staff assistant, carefully transports the overhead projector to its next destination.

TERESA BUSHMAN handles the job of checking out books and signing return passes for seventh graders, Jeff Downham and Dwayne Waldron.

MRS. MIRIAM SENGER, high school librarian, runs a tight, well organized library along with supervising fifteen library assistants.

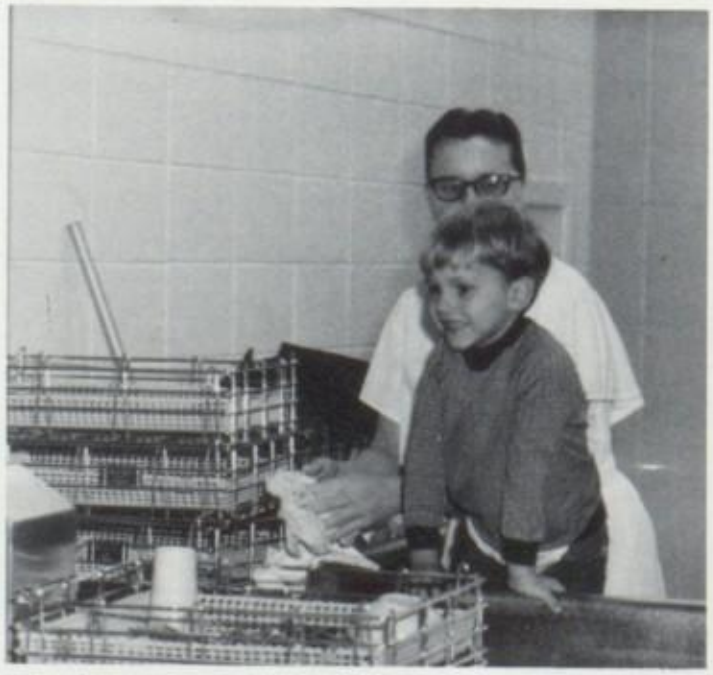
School Helpers Appreciated by All at R.H.S.

Pies baked, windows washed, floors waxed, graffiti removed, dishes washed, desks fixed, hot dogs served, light bulbs replaced,—are all pretty much taken for granted by all of us. But, most of us would notice pretty quickly if they didn't get done. Getting up at 6:00 A.M. to drive a bus-load of screaming kids around the country, or cleaning scuff marks off floors and walls, or preparing food for the 850 students that buy lunch probably isn't the most rewarding job in the world, but, whether we show it or not, most of us do appreciate them all—cooks, janitors, and bus drivers alike.

MRS. MOSSON AND MRS. SKILES begin to prepare a hot lunch for approximatley 850 hungry students.



MRS. JOY SKILES prepares the trays for washing as her son, Craig, enthusiastically surveys the packed cafeteria.

MR. TIMMONS, aided by Mrs. Fickle, a new face at R.H.S., return the unused wax after the daily cleaning of the multipurpose room floor.

Standing: Mr. Ralph Harshman, Mrs. Ruby Frantz, Mr. John Frantz, Mr. Clarence Timmons. Seated: Mr. Kenny Butler.

JANITOR KENNY BUTLER first inspects the problem as he prepares to replace a bad ceiling tile in the high school office.

A sigh of relief . . . That's how we feel. Just a little sad, we are, because we will be separated, two and three; but through the yearbook we have lived today more thoroughly and will come to cherish these yesterdays in the Lars room. But it has been a rough year for all of us. There have been many problems to cope with. With so many other activities whirling about us, we have really been pressed for time; sponsor, editors, and staff. We thank everyone who was affected by our rushing: coaches being nagged for scores, staffers being pushed for copy and Mr. Baumer, Dawn Hackerd, Curt Perry and Larry Meador being rushed for pictures. A special thanks we give to Mrs. Kathy Huddleston for putting up with our arguments.

Dave, Velma, Kathy, and Colleen

Cherish Yesterday .....

Remember loafing around at the Sundae Corner .. Being a freshman .. winning the sectional .. screaming, hugging and congratulating when we beat Lebanon .. listening to Shiloh Morning in the gym ....

Live Today .....

Being you when everyone is being someone else .. helping out when somebody needs you .. being a part of the whole high school experience at R.H.S. ....

Dream for Tommorrow .....

Seeing the future become reality before your very eyes .. going to college .. working on the farm .. going to the moon .. reaching he no one has ever reached before .
